The July report is slightly earlier, we are leaving for a short family vacation traveling tomorrow Monday and returning Saturday.

It will be a blessing to have some family time and we are ready and looking forward to some prayer time and devotional time together.

Bradley, Emmie and Millie are very excited, it will be a blessing and we are very thankful for this opportunity to take a time out.

We give thanks to God for this opportunity.

Our daughters

Millie, Emmie and Gemma.
We love these girls so much.

Gemma is doing amazing, such a transformation and we thank God.

We are fighting the legal system and doing everything we can to seek her legal rights.

Her past is horrific but her future is wonderful and we are so thankful that God brought her here to the city of Leicester.

Gemma is part of our home and we have made her part of our family, more importantly from her baptism Christ added her to His Christian family.

To see her life transform simply reminds us of the power of our mighty God and we give Him glory and praise.

Please continue to keep Gemma and her circumstances in prayer.

Children's Classes

The Sunday School is growing rapidly and we are so excited about the growth.

Janet is spending many hours in class preparation and taking the kids through the bible.

Janet also spends time with Joy and Edith developing a program and helping to develop the school program.

We now have three classes including a teens class that brother Khuen takes every Sunday morning along with midweek study's taken by my older children.

The School continues to grow in numbers and we are thrilled by the growth and development.

We are so thankful to God and give Him all glory and praise.

Trip to Malawi

Emmie and myself will be heading to Malawi in Africa on August the 11th.

Emmie will be working with a team with holiday bible clubs in the villages and is very excited

I will be preaching with Bob Eckman and Ken Mullan in two districts and will be covering around 18 sermons between the three of us.

I was a little concerned about taking time out from the mission work in Leicester and initially turned down the trip.

Having spoken with Bob Eckman I realised that this was a vital need and our African brethren in Leicester are excited about the mission.

My parents have been involved with these congregations for many years supporting the work and working along with my home congregation on building a new clinic in the village.

This work was completed and so we will get to see the clinic in action.

In order to cover costs we sold unwanted belongings and generated the funds for our tickets for Emmie and myself.

To spend this time with my 16 year old daughter is a blessing, I am thankful that we can spend this time together and to partner with her serving God in this capacity.

Emmie along with Bradley and Millie work so hard with the mission work in Leicester and never complain about anything, we are thankful that we can give her this experience and opportunity.

Building Plans

We continue in our quest to find a new meeting house.

We are looking at many options with the aim of finding a building that is large and available to use for many outreach programs.

I've submitted a request to the city council and awaiting an update of the plan submitted.

We continue to seek a shop or store in the city centre and submit our prayers to God for His guidance and will to be done.

We continue relentlessly with our outreach mission to win and save souls, this precedes any building or material need and is the highest agenda we have

We trust God because He never fails.

Thank You

Janet and I feel very close to you all and realise that God provided a strong group of Christians from around the globe to spread the gospel to the 400.000 in the city of Leicester.

We have been blessed over and over and feel overwhelmed by the love and generosity of you all.

It is such a priviledged opportunity to serve the people here in Leicester and we feel truly humbled.

We pray for each and everyone of you and thank God daily for providing us with such wonderful brothers and sister.

Please pass the love of my family to your congregation and let them all know how much we love them all.

God Bless, In Him
Paul & Janet Hill
